THEME:

FUTURE-PROOFING PLANTATION AGRICULTURE: INNOVATION, RESILIENCE, AND SUSTAINABILITY

Plantation agriculture stands at a pivotal crossroads, facing unprecedented challenges from climate change, stagnant productivity, market volatility, and evolving consumer demands. IPC 2026 will bring together industry leaders, scientists, policymakers, and stakeholders to chart a path forward. Join us to explore cutting-edge research, policies, and practices driving sustainability, resilience, and global competitiveness. Sessions will highlight innovations from field to market, making this a key forum to build resilient, profitable, and sustainable plantations. Focusing on solutions that balance productivity with environmental stewardship, IPC 2026 will showcase how the palm oil industry can lead responsibly in meeting the demands of a changing world
